

Counterfeits.

Read what one of the GREATEST NEWSPAPERS IN AMERICA has to say on this subject:

"The manufacturers of Castoria have been compelled to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to familiarize the public with the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. This has been necessitated by reason of pirates counterfeiting the Castoria trademark. This counterfeiting is a crime not only against the proprietors of Castoria, but against the growing generation. All persons should be careful to see that Castoria bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, if they would guard the health of their children. Parents, and mothers in particular, ought to carefully examine the Castoria advertisements which have been appearing in this paper, and to remember that the wrapper of every bottle of genuine Castoria bears the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, under whose supervision it has been manufactured continuously for over thirty years.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Conger Bros. of St. Paul, Minn., say: "Fletcher's Castoria is certainly full of merit and worthy of recommendation."
C. G. A. Leder, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "For 20 years we have sold Fletcher's Castoria and are pleased to state that it has given universal satisfaction."
The Schultz Drug Co. of Denver, Colo., says: "Fletcher's Castoria has surely become a household word. Seemingly every family where there are children uses it."
Huangland & Mansfield, of Boston, Mass., say: "We have nothing but good to say about your Castoria and we do not hesitate to give it our unqualified endorsement."
Hiker's Drug Store, of New York City, says: "Fletcher's Castoria is one of the oldest and most popular preparations in our store. We have nothing but good to say about it."
Wells-Wilson Drug Co. of St. Louis, Mo., says: "Of the thousands of patent medicines for which we have demand there are a very few of them that we can conscientiously recommend and your Castoria is included in this few."
D. R. Dyche & Co. of Chicago, Ill., say: "The increasing demand for your Castoria shows that a discriminating public is not slow to seek out a remedy of merit and once convinced that it does all and more than claimed they do not hesitate to recommend it to their friends."
The Owl Drug Co. of San Francisco, Cal., says: "We have always been a believer in the 'original man protection' and have been particular never to sell anything but the genuine and original Castoria (Fletcher's). We have many calls every day for this article from people who say they would not be without it in their homes."

GERMAN WAR MACHINE IS NOW BEGINNING TO SHOW SIGNS OF WEAR

Now Beyond Doubt that the German Turning Movement to the South-east of Paris has been Defeated and there is a Dawning Hope that the Allies left is About to Take Revenge for Enemy Blows at Battle of Mons—Tentons Becoming Alarmed Regarding the Safety of their Communications and See Looming Possibility of Disaster.

London, Sept. 11—(4:37 a.m.)—The correspondent of the Times at Bordeaux sends the following:

"It is now beyond doubt that the German turning movement to the south-east of Paris has been defeated and there is a dawning hope that the allies left, which has born a rain of the enemy's blows since the fighting at Mons began, is now about to take its revenge."

"The Germans have been fighting desperately to guard their line of communication, which is in considerable danger from the allies left. They have been forced to retreat before the onslaught of the British and withdrawal of the German right has begun to assist the French in forcing back the center unless the Germans desire to find themselves obliged to follow the imperial chancellor's advice and 'hack' their way through."

"The German check in front of the Meaux and Verdun line has had its echo throughout the field of operations. On the extreme French right the enemies division bearing down upon Nancy has been driven back behind the forest of Champenoux."

"Since Sunday when the enemy's creep south-east of Paris was checked on the Grand Morin, the German war machine has been showing signs of wear and each fresh day of battle has closed with the allies in a more favorable position."

Testing New Day of Offense—
On Sunday there was a furious fight along the Grand Morin, which continued at Le Perreux through the night and on Monday morning the enemy began a retreat upon their next line along the Petit Morin. Here they were allowed no rest for the allied forces were testing the rare joy of the offensive and vied to take it to the full."

"On Tuesday the German command became apprehensive for the safety of its communication and saw looming on its right flank a possibility of disaster."

"North of the French found ample room for assembling a large army and while the British were slipping from the northeast of Paris to the east with the Germans, their place of glory was taken by a strong force which moved up to the river Ourq and became a very serious menace to the enemy's rear."

The French, however, stand firm along the Ourq while the British have crossed the Marne and have driven the enemy a distance of 25 miles. From the center news is meagre but the French are understood to be progressing."

"The Germans apparently are suffering from lack of ammunition and it would seem that their difficulties in obtaining supplies from the base have only begun. If all their plans succeed, as they have done during the last few days, the allies should be well on their way to victory."

Cost Germans Daily—
London, Sept. 11—The Times correspondent of the Express quotes a message received from the front stating that the allies at last have got into their stride to victory."

"The passage of the Marne has cost the Germans dearly," the message says.

"They fought their way step by step, tired though they were, but at the Marne the Seventh French army got in. The German positions were no longer erected than they were swept away by the French artillery fire. The Germans held on steadfastly but lost heavily and finally succeeded in getting across the river under a torrent of fire."

"The British army was not heavily engaged during the fray. There are approximately 100,000 men in the allies fighting lines."

MEMBERS IN BRITISH HOUSE COMPLAIN THAT CENSORS TOO STRICT

London, Sept. 11—The official press bureau and censorship were again today informed that a number of members of the House of Commons this evening several members complaining that the accounts of the British fighting were too meagre and that the result was that false news continued to England became current.

T. P. O'Connor, one of the Irish leaders, pleaded for complete reform in the censorship. "There was Mr. O'Connor said, no public in the world which should be so well and so adequately informed with regard to the causes of the war, the incidents of the war and the principles of the war, as the public of the United States, especially in view of the fact that strenuous and very extensive efforts were being made to poison public opinion there."

Francis Drake Acland, parliamentary under-secretary of the foreign office, said that steps were being taken to insure that reliable news was promptly dispatched to neutral countries.

REPORT SAYS FRENCH HAVE RECAPTURED THE TOWN OF MULHAUSEN

London, Sept. 11 (3 a.m.)—The French have recaptured Mulhausen, according to a despatch to the Exchange-Telegraph company from Rome. Despatches from French sources recently have stated that the town on the Alsace frontier from the Germans had been recaptured. Yesterday a report was received that fighting had occurred at Mulhausen, which is on the road to Mulhausen.

DISASTROUS CHARGE BY NINTH LANCERS

Dashed to Within Thirty Yards of Enemy When Concealed Guns Fired.

RESULT WAS SHATTERING

Majority Trapped in Wire Entanglements and Mowed Down.

London, Sept. 11—(3:19 a.m.)—The House correspondent of the Daily Mail sends a picturesque story of a great cavalry charge at Tintin, a town in Belgium near Charleroi, and the subsequent retreat to Compiegne. The story follows:

"On Monday morning, August 24, during the last day of the second British cavalry brigade led by the 9th Lancers, the British cavalry charged almost within reach of the enemy's guns, which suddenly the Germans opened a murderous fire with at least 20 concealed machine guns at a range of 150 yards."

"The result was shattering, and the Lancers caught the full force of the storm. 'Vicente Vauxville,' a French cavalry officer who rode with the brigade as interpreter, was killed. Captain Le Touzey, who was the French master of a school in Devon, was riding by the side of Vauxville and had a narrow escape as his horse was shot from under him. Other officers also fell."

While the bulk of the brigade averred to the right the others held on and rode on full tilt to the wire entanglements in the grass 30 yards in front of the machine guns, and were mowed down. Three regiments of the 9th Lancers and the British army went into the charge and suffered severely. The 15th Hussars and the fourth dragoon also suffered but not to the same extent as the others."

A happy feature of the charge was the gallant conduct of Captain Grenfell, who though twice wounded, called for volunteers and saved the guns. It is said that he has been severely wounded."

"After this terrible ordeal the British for the Victoria Cross. The 9th Lancers were harassed for four days of retreat, the enemy giving them no rest. The British army fought neither day nor night. At two o'clock each morning they were attacked by artillery fire, and every day they fought a rearing action."

It was a wonderful retreat. Daily the cavalry fought to recover lost ground but only once they were permitted to taste that joy, at the village of Laasney, which they passed and repulsed three times."

The Germans made repeated efforts which were always failed, to capture the retreating troops. It had, however, been a desperate struggle, and at one point it escaped by a furious gallop which enabled the wagons to cross a bridge less than a hour's ride from the enemy. The engineers had mined the bridges and were waiting to blow it up. They sent a letter to the British and the latter answered with alacrity. The bridge was blown up just in time to separate the two forces. At Compiègne the brigade for the first time saw and welcomed their French brothers in arms."

OUT OF EVERY HUNDRED MEN HIT ONLY TWO DIE STATES FRENCH MEDICO

London, Sept. 10—The Bordeaux correspondent of the Exchange-Telegraph states that according to a statement made today by a member of the health department in the ministry of war the present European war was not resulting in a very heavy loss of life. Of every hundred men killed, only two die."

"Our wounded are numerous but their injuries are slight and most men are being hurt in the arms or legs and the wounds almost invariably heal rapidly. Many of the wounded have already returned to the front. However, our low mortality rate may be attributed to the poor aim of the Germans."

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Capetown Soldiers Are Killed in Train Wreck

London, Sept. 11—A Capetown despatch to Reuters Telegram company states that a troop train loaded with 600 soldiers of their way to the coast for shipment to Europe was derailed on a sharp curve overlooking the Hexagon, and 20 soldiers were killed and 20 seriously injured. The accident, probably was due to the undermining of the tracks by recent heavy rains."

WHOLE BODY A SOLID RASH

Thick, Fine and Red. Agony of Itching and Burning Frightful. One Cake of Cuticura Soap and Box of Cuticura Ointment Cured.

Lower Oulou, N. B.—"At first we thought our child had measles, but the whole body was a solid rash and the skin came out as if it had been scalded. It was a very thick fine rash, and in color a brilliant red, itchy and burning. The skin just wiped off leaving a raw, sore, and it was very painful. We tried everything but Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The first night for four months. I am thankful to say the cure was complete and I had one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment." STATED OCEANIC RAN ASHORE OFF SCOTLAND

London, Sept. 11—A notice posted today at the office of the White Star Line declares that the steamer Oceanic, the loss of which was announced by the press bureau last night, ran ashore.

This is the first definite news as to what caused the loss of the Oceanic. Last night it was said that she had been wrecked on the north coast of Scotland, but no further details were given."

GERMAN OFFICER SO BUSY STRIKING HIS MEN FORGOT FRENCH

Paris, Sept. 11—A young reserve officer, who had just read the morning paper, was captured the sword of a Bavarian colonel, said:

"When charging the Bavarians, I thought that their colonel was striking his own men with the sword, instead of from running away. He was so busy striking his men that he forgot to strike the French and was shot dead."

Forget's Daughter Wedded

Quebec, Sept. 11—His Grace Archbishop Bruchet yesterday morning blessed the wedding of Miss Margaret Forget, daughter of Sir Rudolph Forget, to Alexander Martin, of Montreal. The ceremony took place in the parish church of St. Irene les Bains, where Sir Rudolph and Lady Forget spent the summer. Sir Rudolph Forget and Dr. Geo. Kent served as witnesses.

LONDON CANADIANS EQUIP NEW MILITARY HOSPITAL

London, Sept. 11—Another proof of Canada's practical devotion is offered by the donation of the Mary's Canadian military hospital, the gift of Canadians in London. The Canadian Red Cross Association has arranged with the army council through the Canadian committee to equip and maintain for 12 months a hospital of 50 beds or more for the general use of the Canadian forces. Sir William Calder and Donald Armour have volunteered the organization and equipment. The hospital has now been requisitioned. It will be the war office. The Canadian Red Cross Association in London, in conjunction with the Canadian Red Cross Association, has arranged to operate and assist in raising the necessary funds.

Ottawa, Sept. 10—The department of justice announced that it is in receipt of a cable advice from Hon. Mr. Justice Campbell in Ottawa, that the Hon. Mr. Justice, who was recently in Ottawa, Mr. Collier is understood to be still in the hospital, and the department is anxious to ascertain his exact whereabouts at the present time.

Every British Sailor Filled with the Lust of Battle is Waiting for the Fateful Hour—Stated Belgians are Assuming Triumphant Offensive and Driving Enemy Back on Louvain—Fleet of Zeppelin Aircraft Said to be on the Way to London.

New York, Sept. 11—The London correspondent of the Herald states: "Following the victorious offensive movement of the allied French and British armies on land, which is forcing the whole German line to retreat, driving the German right wing far over the Marne, the British fleet has made a complete sweep of the North Sea and to into the light of Heligoland in efforts to force the German fleet, which has been hiding, to come out and fight. The admiralty reports say not a German warship was seen."

"I am informed, however, that before many hours the Germans stung by their unexpected weapon, will, under direct orders from the Kaiser, make a desperate effort to win mastery of the sea."

"I can tell you every British sailor, from Admiral John Jellicoe down, is filled with the lust of battle and waiting for the fateful hour, when the German fleet will be in the death and will before long be seen in the gardens at Potsdam."

crumpling under the terrific assault of the French. As England chafes at good news of the war on land it again with confidence the news of the result of a fight in the air with a Zeppelin fleet that is said to be on its way to London.

England, too, has supreme confidence in the outcome of the impending battle at sea.

"This superb confidence seems justified by the dramatic news from Belgium that the Belgian army is assuming a triumphant offensive and with a small force of 'Revue' is driving the Germans back on isolated Louvain."

"It begins to look as if Lord Curzon would have his wish, expressed in a speech last night, in which he said, after recounting many incidents of German barbarity: 'I venture to hope our Indian troops, who would not exchange the beneficent government of England for the iron rule and the jack boot will be in the death and will before long be seen in the gardens at Potsdam.'"

BALKAN ALLIANCE IS FORMED WITH OBJECT KEEP TURKEY IN ORDER

London, Sept. 11 (9:35 a.m.)—Telegraphing from Rome, a correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "A Balkan alliance has been formed, which has signed an agreement which may be regarded as an alliance under the terms of which the three nations are bound to interfere wherever necessary in order to prevent Turkey's adding Germany and Austria to the present war."

If Turkey remains neutral, however, these nations will do the same. It is reported in Rome, the correspondent says, that Italy has become resigned to the idea of Italian neutrality but she is determined that Italy shall at least remain neutral until the end."

"ARE YOU A MASON?"

rip-roaring comedy, excellent acting and splendid music dished up during the intervals is the bill of fare served to patrons of the Empire theatre for the week-end. A fair house greeted The Players last night in "Are You a Mason?" The verdict of every one present was that never has such a couple of hours of real fun been had in Edmonton before. The play is the most amusing that has ever been on the boards and in the hands of actors of the calibre of the present house of direction of Theodore Johnston, new and subtle comedy is brought out and it takes those who witness the performance several hours before they finally get their faces straightened.

"It is the best act company that has ever been in Canada," is the universal verdict by all who have attended the Empire the last two weeks. The Players have now established a reputation, which, although it will undoubtedly draw crowded houses, is hard to live up to. But Theodore has spoken! When he says anything he means it. His words are to the effect that there are more pleasant surprises for theater-goers here and that future performances will be even better than those already produced.

"Are You a Mason?" is too well known to need any explanation and it would be unfair to single out any particular member of the company for praise. Criticism of the show could be put into the one word—"Excellent." Without being invidious, probably Guy Harrington in the leading role, William L. Nolle as his friend and Neil McLeod as Amos Bloodgood caused the most laughs. Nolle's make up as an "amateur" unknown actor, is splendid and his acting immaculate. Their laughter in following each other's notions in order to persuade the other that each are masons are so ridiculous that they fetch down the house. The fine opportunities provided for fun in the piece are well taken care of. Miss Sadie Reynolds has a most amusing part. As soon as the curtain lifts she is greeted with a roar of laughter, which every time she makes an appearance is renewed.

The play is staged to make one laugh and any person who does not enjoy it must be lacking a sense of humor.

PANTAGES ACTRESS

TO JOIN RED CROSS

The effect of the war is already lifting upon vaudeville circles. A letter received yesterday by the management of antique theatre tells that the vaudeville stage is to lose one of its bright spots.

Next week, George Cooper will appear at the local playhouse with Leader Stevens and company in the popular dramatic play, entitled "Lead Kindly Light." Miss Cooper is a wonderful actress, but underneath the surface she is a real every-day woman and when the act gets to Seattle she will leave to become a Red Cross

"THE ELDER BROTHER"

FEATURE AT EMPRESS

As a special feature photograph at the Empire theatre for Friday and Saturday, "The Elder Brother" will be offered. Francis X. Bushman is seen in the title role.

Irving Caldwell had never known what. When his father died a great part of the estate went to the spoiled lad. When he became of age he was too good to work and spent most of his time with a questionable company in and about the great white light.

His dissipation brought him into contact with a man named Leder and the two enjoyed the reputation "the city's greatest sports." Philip Irving's brother, he took what money was left him and took up the study of medicine. He graduated with high honors and began an official career as a doctor to work. Irving became very much infatuated with a cabaret dancer. She was a good girl but cared only for the pretty things Irving would occasionally give her. Leder was fast becoming a rival of Irving and one night the two quarrelled, as both were determined to court her home. During the argument the dancer side out through a side door, leaving her ankle. Philip Irving happened to be passing in his machine and he was the first to find her. He was greatly impressed with the girl's beauty and personality and he was determined to assist her to her home.

When Irving returns home in the morning he finds his brother's car in the driveway and he finds Philip Irving's car in the driveway. Philip Irving is horrified. Several days later Irving finds that Philip Irving has been to the city to see the girl he loves. The elder brother finally consents to go. His pulse quickens and his heart beats as if it would break side door. When he discovers that the girl he has learned to love is the cabaret dancer who had been his brother's mistress, he leaves the stage, dances through the aisles among the jolly throng, stands before the bewildered Philip Irving and tells him that he must see her—but he is disgusted. He brushes her aside and leaves the cafe.

The remainder of the story is most interesting, with a vow by Irving never to smoke again. It ends pleasantly with Philip Irving's Ruth tenderly in his arms—she having promised to become his wife.

AMATEUR NIGHT AGAIN

AT BIJOU FRIDAY

Tonight is amateur night, the usual Friday evening's feature attraction, at the Bijou. To make this event particularly appealing, an especially selected number of events have been arranged by the management, and the patrons of the Bijou are invited to call forward to the biggest bunch of laughs yet offered by these weekly amateurs. Amateur night at the Bijou has met with the popular favor, perhaps, with greater success than any other of the entertaining and individual attractions presented in addition to the regular program.

Arrangements have been concluded by the Bijou management, it is announced, for the weekly showing of "The Warlike Circle," a motion picture current news film. "These pictures are direct from England and show views of the late particularly. The views are shown on the program of today and tomorrow show their majesties in Paris, and the great military parades at Vincennes, swearing in recruits, the soldiers' Sabbath, and a number of other very interesting and significant events are pictured.

Among the other photographs to be presented on this program is an "Elder Brother" feature, the favorite act, G. M. Anderson, who is known all over the world for his "Elder Brother" act—creation, "Bruno Bili," is some time since they were fortunate enough to see one of his performances and it will be more than welcome to the many patrons of the Bijou.

AMERICANS ARE ALREADY PLANNING RECAPTURE OF DAVIS TENNIS CUP

Plans for 1915 Team—McLoughlin is the Nucleus of the Four and the Other Members Will Be Drawn From Young Squad.

American lawn tennis players and officials are already planning for the re-capture of the Davis cup, won by the Australian team at Forest Hills, N.Y., through the efforts of Norman D. Brooks and Anthony P. Wilding.

With Maurice E. McLoughlin as a nucleus, a new team will be organized and a challenge issued in 1915, provided the European war clouds have dispersed and the international situation warrants such action.

With Brooks and Wilding unable to defend the trophy again and a score of young American players rapidly rising to the heights already attained by McLoughlin, the prospects of recapturing the cup in the next try is considered bright. McLoughlin's victories in the recent tournament stamp him as the greatest singles player in the world.

In addition to McLoughlin and R. Norris Williams, William M. Johnston, John R. Strachan, R. Lindley Murray, Clarence Griffin, G. C. Cramer, and Ed. Pettit from a squad of young players who are mounting to the highest ranks, and these players, together with several others of more mature ability, give a wide field from which to select. From this same combination a formidable doubles pair might be formed, although pairs already accustomed to the necessary team work, like Dean Malley and George M. Church, who surprised the Davis cup gallery by defeating Dunt and Dunlop the Australian reverts, are available and need but a little polish to make them of cup calibre.

Unless the other tennis-playing nation of the world keep pace in the development of young players, it is doubtful, therefore, if the next contest for this cup will witness the close and thrilling play that developed in the 1914 struggle. An analysis of the Davis cup records for the tournament shows that the representatives of the seven nations which participated played a total of 100 matches, consisting of thirty matches, ninety-five sets and 900 games.

With the exception of the United States-Australian matches, all the rounds were one-sided. Brooks and Wilding, after defeating two matches to the British Isles team, won 72 games to 44, and defeated the United States 102 games to 36.

In the challenge round the point tables show that McLoughlin defeated Brooks 176 to 148, and Wilding 121 to 95. Brooks defeated Williams 156 to 102, and Wilding won 121 to 89. In the doubles Brooks and Wilding defeated McLoughlin and Bundy, 148 to 120. But 19 points separated the two nations at the end of the play, the final score for five matches being: Australian, 627; United States, 618.

The fate of rugby football in Edmonton for this season will be decided at a meeting to be held in the Y. M. C. A. Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Prospects for the game will be thoroughly discussed. Delegates from the Eskimos, University of Alberta, Cycles and the Edmonton Cane club are asked to be present.

COAST SOCCER MEN NOT AFFILIATING

Will Have nothing to do With D.F.A.—Want Fee Returned.

Vancouver, Sept. 11.—British Columbia footballers have practically decided to withdraw their application for membership in the Dominion Football association, a body composed almost entirely of Eastern clubs. Although the application accompanied by $50 fee, was forwarded this week, President Dave Leith, of the D.F.A., yesterday despatched a wire to the D.F.A. officials requesting them to withdraw the application. The D.F.A. have accordingly notified the B.C.F.A. that the initiation fee was $10 and the annual membership $50. The British Columbia men are unable to see just what is to be gained by affiliation if they must forsake the B.C. & A. U. and accept the D.F.A. definition of an amateur.

President Leith was busy yesterday notifying the coast officials of the demands of the D.F.A. and it is expected at a special meeting of the coast body will be held tomorrow to go over the situation.

LABOR MEN PROVIDE INTERESTING ATHLETIC COMPETITION AT ARENA

Small Crowd Present to Witness Postponed Labor Day Sports—Much Amusement and Excitement Aroused by Union and Handicap Races—Well Managed Meet.

Although the crowd was not as large as might have been desired, this was the only drawback to the Labor day sports which, postponed on account of rain, were pulled off in the arena on Tuesday evening. Those who were present were treated to some fine competitions and were amply repaid for their efforts.

The long list of events was carried out without a single misadventure under the management of the Trades and Labor officials and no time was lost between competition. Jack Buchanan was of special interest and was right on to the job. The 100 yard dash was the only event pulled off in the arena, which went to Sheppard, who was credited with 10.2 seconds for the distance. Jones made a brave fight for it but was beaten out just at the tape.

The mile handicap went to Stewart in one of the best races of the meet, with Porech a close second. The latter made a desperate effort at the finish but could not hold the big boy on the final spurt. Sheppard took the standing high jump while Hubbard won the broad jump. Hubbard, with a large handicap, annexed the hop, step and jump.

Hubbard was away to the start in the 220 yards from scratch and took the race, followed by Jones and Lyons. The quarter mile relay, usually considered the hardest race of the lot, was taken by Blades. Porech's team won the half mile relay from Pierce's team, the Y. M. C. A. four not finishing on account of an unfortunate accident to Buchanan the second man. He was leading by a good margin but fell twice and had to quit, putting his team out of the race.

Hubbard captured the half mile open with Holtman a close second and Stuart third. Only three participated in the two mile handicap, Porech winning easily. Much interest was aroused in the mile climbing competition—1, Fullman; 2, Harrison; 3, Fuller. The quarter mile inter-union and the mile climbing competition was taken by Fullman in 25 seconds.

The freck events such as the egg and spoon race, the obstacle race, and the unfolded race were the cause of much amusement. In addition the boys and girls had some spectacular dashes. Only two teams entered for the tug-of-war, a team of delegates plying the carters after a hard struggle.

Following is a summary of the events. Open Events. Running broad jump—1, Hubbard; 2, Porech; 3, Buchanan. Distance, 19 feet, 10 inches. 100 yards dash—1, Sheppard; 2, Jones; 3, Lyons. Time, 10.2 seconds. Half mile relay—1, Pierce; 2, Jones; 3, Lyons. Time, 10.2 seconds. Quarter mile relay—1, Pierce; 2, Jones; 3, Lyons. Time, 10.2 seconds.
